

China Embassy in Washington (USA)

Case Study

The office building of the Chinese Embassy in the United States is located in Washington DC. The exterior is made of French limestone with a light color and fine texture, which is in harmony with the numerous limestone federal buildings in the nearby area.

China Embassy in Washington (USA)

Case Study

